

ReachCentrum and RGS sign a partnership to comply with Turkish chemical legislation

ReachCentrum is glad to announce that on 4 November 2010 a partnership agreement with REACH global services (RGS) has been signed. Via this agreement, ReachCentrum and RGS will work together in supporting companies to fulfill the notification requirements for the Turkish Chemicals Inventory and Control Legislation.

According to the Turkey chemical legislation, importers and manufacturers have to notify their chemical substances to the Turkish authorities by 31st March 2011. To comply with the legislation, companies must understand the regulatory requirements and make a notification in Turkish using the IT tools made available by the Turkish authorities.

ReachCentrum, in order to support companies having to comply with the Turkey chemical legislation, has identified RGS as a reliable service provider and partner: headquartered in Brussels, Belgium and a liaison office in Istanbul, Turkey, RGS is a consulting company specializing in advising companies operating in chemical and allied industries to comply with EU REACH and Turkish chemicals legislation. RGS is an Only Representative to many of Turkey's leading chemical companies. The company is an independent Belgian legal entity.
